

Indian Ocean World Centre

Winter Speaker Series

Prof. Gwyn Campbell – IOWC, McGill

The Role of British Political Agents and Missionaries in Perpetuating Slavery and Forced Labour in Nineteenth-Century Madagascar

Jan 22 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

Caroline LaPorte-Burns – Art History & Communication Studies, McGill

Shipwreck Memory: Submersion, Retrieval, and Material Conversion in Early Modern Dutch Mother-of-Pearl Craft

Feb 5 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

Moinak Banerjee – English, McGill

The Flâneur in South Asia: A Poetic Long Walk through the Global Sixties and Cultural Cold War

Feb 12 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

Anna Winterbottom – McGill

Inoculation in Early Modern India: Evidence from the East India Company Archive

Feb 19 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

Veysel Simsek – Islamic Studies, McGill

The Ottoman-Egyptian War of 1831-33: An Assessment

Mar 12 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

Philip Gooding – IOWC, McGill

Missionary Discourse and the Problem of Slavery in Histories of the African Great Lakes

Mar 26 - Rm 116, Peterson Hall, 3:00 - 5:00

General Inquiries

www.indianoceanworldcentre.com

iowc@mcgill.ca

McGill